

WORKMANSHIP AS A VIRTUE

Workmanship is a capital virtue that is rapidly disappearing in many industrialized nations. The accomplished workman does not pursue any external goals: he performs his tasks to the best of his ability because this ~~it~~ gives him satisfaction.

Need to cultivate workmanship for its own sake,
Reasons why.

