

WHAT CAN BE RIGHT OR WRONG?

It is generally accepted that only intentions and actions can be right or wrong. On the other hand "good" and "bad", and in general "valuable" and "disvaluable", can be predicated of some things, their states, and their changes of state (i.e. events).

