

SOURCE OF MORAL PROBLEMS : CONFLICT BETWEEN YOU AND ME

All moral problems have their ultimate source in the conflicts of interests: between self and society, individual needs and social needs, rights and duties. Under an absolute dictatorship, where there are no individual rights, but only duties, there are no moral problems; in a disintegrating society, where every one is for himself, there are no duties, and so no moral problems either. Moral problems arise only in societies that admit both rights and duties.

BUFFALO

8-10 pages
300 words abstract

The current global crisis and how to solve it with the help of \rightarrow new models and new policies

1. Crisis

Overpopulation, environ. degradation, arms race, poverty, ^{richness} oppression, ignorance, ~~corruption~~ corruption

2. ~~Wrong values and right values~~ values & money

3. ~~Wrong values and right values~~

4. ~~Transition of values for survival~~

4. Model for survival

5. Summary.